

HB 866 -- MARITAL AND FAMILY THERAPY

SPONSOR: Fitzwater (49)

This bill changes the definition of "marital and family therapy" to include the use of psychotherapy methods and procedures in certain circumstances. Marriage and family therapy is also expanded to include the assessment and treatment of mental health and substance use disorders, partner relational problems, and other factors influencing health status and contact with health services as a basis for the therapy.